TO BE A PROPHET

Today's readings show us what it is like to be a prophet. As Jeremiah recounts his call, God warns him that he will need strength and perseverance to withstand the hostility he will face from "Judah's kings and princes" and "its priests and people" (Jeremiah 1:18b). God also assures him that they "will not prevail over you, for I am with you" (1:19). The psalm reflects both of these struggles as well as deliverance from them ("salvation").

This is exactly what Jesus experiences in today's Gospel. After he claims that his own mission is the same as what Isaiah proclaimed, at first the people marvel at his "gracious words" (Luke 4:22). Soon, however, they become suspicious, skeptical, and hostile, even threatening to kill him. But just as God promised to deliver Jeremiah, so Jesus "passed through the midst of them and went away" (4:30).

You should have received a letter from Fr. Michael regarding Pope Francis’ Synod seeking input from Catholics all over the world. The survey asks questions about some of the important issues facing the Church today in a rapidly changing world. This is the first time in history that the Vatican is seeking the input from Catholics in every part of the world. Your voice will make a difference; so it will be important that you participate in the survey and express your opinion.

OLA has a link on our website, ola.community, and hardcopy surveys are available in the vestibule and in the rectory. The survey is open from January 15—February 15. To access the survey, visit <https://portal.catholicleaders.org/dmi/survey/k6936k>.
