PROPHETS

We reflect upon the voice of the prophet in this Sunday's readings. We hear of the suffering and the rescue of Jeremiah. We hear how Jesus anticipates his suffering and death. As with Jeremiah and Jesus, the prophets were sent by God to the leaders and people of Israel. A prophet is one who speaks truth to the powerful, exposing their darker hidden motives and injustices. The prophet presents a way forward that aligns with God's purposes. A prophet can force people away from a comfortable neutrality or indifference. The prophet creates an urgency to make a choice: Are we content with the status quo, or are we to change our ways and pursue a new and better path? Today, we may also ask, how do we identify and respond to prophets of our time? How might we provide a prophetic voice in our Church and in our world?

PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF ANGELS

Our Lady of the Angels, who has for centuries established your throne of mercy at the Portiuncula, hear the prayer of your children, who trust in you. From this truly holy place and the habitation of the Lord, so dear to the heart of Saint Francis, you have always invited all to love.

Your tender eyes assure us of a never failing motherly help and a promise of divine help to all those who humbly have recourse to your throne, or who from afar, turn to you to ask for help. You are, indeed, our sweet Queen and our only hope.

O Lady of the Angels, obtain for us, through the intercession of blessed Francis, pardon for our sins, help us to keep away from sin and indifference, so that we shall be worthy of calling you our Mother for evermore.

Bless our homes, our toil and our rest, by giving us that same serenity we experience within the walls of the Portiuncula, where hate, guilt and tears turn into a song of joy like that once was sung by the Angels and the seraphic Francis.

*Help those who are in need and hungry,
those who are in danger of body and soul,
those who are sad and downhearted,
those who are sick and dying.*

Bless us, your most beloved children, and we pray you, bless also with the same motherly care, all those who are innocent, together with those who are guilty; those who are faithful, together with those who have gone astray; those who believe, together with those who are in doubt.

Bless all humanity, so that all acknowledging that they are God's children, would find through love, real Peace and real Good.

Amen

“FORMED” PICK OF THE WEEK

FORMED is a popular online platform that can be likened to a Catholic “Netflix”. Visit www.ola.formed.org. You can also scan the QR Code (to the left) on your phone’s camera to download the app. The “Pick of The Week” is The Woman. In the Gospels we hear Jesus refer to his mother Mary as “Woman.” This reference should draw our attention to both Genesis and Revelation. But who is this “Woman,” and why is she so central to salvation history? This powerful film presents the Catholic teaching about Mary and her important role in the life of the Church today. On this Solemnity of the Assumption, let us ponder Mary’s role in our own lives! Visit <https://watch.formed.org/the-woman-1/videos/the-woman>

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary
Monday, August 15, 2022

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary recalls the spiritual and physical departure of the mother of Jesus Christ from earth, when both her soul and her body were taken into the presence of God.

In 1950 Pope Pius XII said: "The Immaculate Virgin preserved by God from all the effects of original sin, having completed her earthly life was raised body and soul to the glory of heaven and exalted by the Lord as Queen of the universe, so as to be more fully conformed to her Son, Lord of lords, victorious over sin and death."

Because the solemnity falls on a Monday this year, all are encouraged to attend Mass but not obliged to do so.

Masses will be celebrated at 8 am and 5:30 pm.
