GOSPEL MEDITATION

It's not uncommon to hear people complain that we Catholics often fail in communicating our faith. Fair enough. We can and should improve there. But it's interesting to notice that Jesus himself was implicitly accused by his disciples of a similar failure. This week in Matthew's gospel they are perplexed that he speaks to the crowds in ambiguous parables. The Lord's riddles leave many people more confused than before. He responds by pointing out that his parables have an intentional dual purpose: to hide (for some) and to reveal (for others) his Gospel: "Because knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been granted to you, but to them it has not been granted" (Matthew 13:11). Is Jesus being unnecessarily difficult, obscurantist, or, worse, elitist?

No. We have to remember that all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge lie hidden in him (c.f., Col. 2:3). He is the word of God from heaven to be planted in the earth of our humanity to bear great fruit. However, like a lover delicately pursuing his beloved, we're dealing with a relationship, not new data. When we aren't willing to personally accept Jesus into our lives, the "info" of the Gospel will simply not make sense to us. It'll seem bizarre, esoteric, or like incoherent religious-speak. But when we are willing to accept Jesus into our lives, everything else starts to make sense. When others don't understand the Church or the Lord, let's be patient. Love is patient. Sometimes it has to hide before it is revealed.

PRAYER

BLESSED SOLANUS CASEY, OFM Cap.

Blessed Solanus Casey was, in many respects, the ideal friar: holy in spirit, focused on simplicity and compassion, and eager to share the spirituality of St. Francis to anyone who knocked on his door. Though he died over 65 years ago, his legacy thrives. Join us for seven days of videos devoted to this beloved Capuchin Franciscan. Each day, from July 25-31 (the feast day of Blessed Solanus), we will relate stories and prayerful meditations in the spirit of this holy man. Visit 465210.hs-sites.com/en-us/solanus-casey-2022?utm_campaign to sign up.

“FORMED” PICK OF THE WEEK

FORMED is a popular online platform that can be likened to a Catholic Netflix. The “Pick of The Week” is Where are You? (Forgiven Session 1). This captivating series explores Catholic themes of redemption, grace, and forgiveness through compelling storytelling and thought-provoking narratives. It offers a profound understanding of the transformative power of forgiveness and its significance in personal growth and spiritual renewal. Visit www.ola.formed.org or scan the QR Code to the left on your phone’s camera.

FR. MICHAEL’S VACATION

Fr. Michael is on vacation from July 4 - July 28 spending time with his family and friends in Ireland. Fr. James and Fr. Peter are happy to fill in should you need assistance.

HOMEBOUND EUCHARIST

Extraordinary Ministers are adult Catholics who wish to serve parishioners who are unable to join us in worship due to health reasons. If you know someone who would like to receive the Eucharist in their home/hospital, or would be interested in helping with this ministry, please contact the rectory office at (650) 347-7768.

ADORATION CHAPEL

Come spend some quiet time with Jesus in the beautiful Adoration Chapel which is located at the end of the Hall of Saints. The chapel is open from 8:30 am-5:30 pm (Monday through Friday) and 8:30 am-Noon (Saturdays). If you would like to devote some time to this ministry, please contact Linda Kosta at (650) 359-0945.

SECOND COLLECTION

JULY 29/30 for ST. VINCENT de PAUL

Please give generously to the OLA Society of St. Vincent de Paul collection. We are seeing significant increases in requests for:

Food support: make sure people don't go hungry

Rent assistance: keep people housed

Bus passes: provide essential transportation

In the last 7 months, the OLA SVdP team made over 250 direct "home visits" to single moms, the elderly, and disabled who live in the apartments along El Camino Real. We also provided ~280 weekend lunches each month for the San Mateo homeless. The OLA SVdP Conference deeply appreciates your generosity so we can continue to directly serve our neighbors in need.
