GOSPEL MEDITATION

A life-long Catholic friend of mine recently mumbled to me, “I can’t stand all these converts to the faith. They’re always rocking the boat.” It surprised me because he is dedicated to evangelization, and yet he struggles with openness to new Catholics. It made me realize how easily I close my heart to those whom I perceive to be outsiders who become new members of the Catholic community. Almost unconsciously I reduce the world to the categories of “us” and “them.” The result is that meaningful community silently shrinks in my life. Don’t we all do that to some degree.

This week Jesus’ punchy parable about the two sons blows up that black and white world. One son said he wouldn’t get to work, and then did. The other said he would, and then he did not. “Which did the will of his father?” asks the Lord. Like so many of us, in identifying the first as the answer, the religious authorities manifest hidden hypocrisy in refusing to follow Jesus. They — like us — intuit the correct path but simply won’t do it. The tax collectors and prostitutes are indeed following Jesus and thereby getting to work in the kingdom of God. Everyone is called to do God’s will regardless of the labels we may apply to them.

This week let’s reject the convenient but damaging categories of “insiders” and “outsiders.” Instead, let’s embrace a grateful attitude that Jesus is calling fallen, weak, and broken men and women like you and me. Then we begin to see that the tax collectors and prostitutes aren’t them. They are us. And Jesus wants all of us working in his boat, no matter the rocking.

PRAYER

FEAST OF ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

Wednesday, October 4

St. Francis was born in 1186 in Umbria. One day, Francis came upon a leper and gave the man a kiss of peace. When the man returned it, Francis was filled with joy. He believed God had tested him and he had passed the test. He began to pray in search of conversion. While praying at San Damiano, he heard the crucifix speak to him, "Francis, repair my church". Francis took this literally and started to rebuild the church. He followed the Bible and gave everything to the poor, directed his followers to accept nothing from others and to take up the cross every day. He practiced true equality by showing honor, respect and love to all God's creations. The National Shrine of St. Francis of Assisi is located at 610 Vallejo Street in San Francisco. Fr. Bobby Barbato, OFM Cap. will be glad to show you this beautiful church.

OLA IS A NEXT GENERATION PARISH WHAT TO EXPECT IN THE NEXT FOUR YEARS:

The Next Generation Parish experience takes approximately four years to come to fruition. During this time, different groups will be active at different times. Please prayerfully consider if God is calling you to serve one or more committee throughout this process.

OLA has been chosen as one of six parishes in the Archdiocese for a special project called Next Generation Parish. With expertise from CLI we will focus on three areas over four years:

1. Assess the strengths of our parish and how we will build on them for the future.
2. Develop a plan with goals and objectives that are real and measurable.
3. Cultivate an even greater awareness in the parish of how blessed we are and the call of the Church to reach out to others who are less fortunate.

Our goal is to use our talents, time and treasure to bring the message of salvation to as many people as possible. Over the next four years, we will roll out a comprehensive program with goals and objectives that, when achieved, will set us up well for the future. YOU too will have the opportunities to be part of this exciting adventure. More information will be available to you as the project proceeds.

Catholic Leadership INSTITUTE

Catholic Leadership Institute (CLI) inspires Catholic leaders to revitalize the Church for a joy-filled future rooted in the mission of Jesus Christ. We intentionally bring the head (data) and the heart (mission) together to offer an accessible and sustainable approach to leadership formation from a deep place of love.

Next Generation Parish is a 4-year experience that transforms the future of the Church through innovative, dynamic accompaniment that helps parishes meet the challenges of our time through visionary models that foster spiritual maturity, share leadership, offer a vibrant Sunday experience, and embrace a missionary impulse.
