GOSPEL MEDITATION

When I was in second grade, my prized possession was a metal Star Wars-themed lunch box. After school one day, another student ripped it from my hands. I helplessly watched in horror as my classmate threw it to the ground and violently stomped it into an unrecognizable heap of junk. I came home covered in tears of shame and rage. After a few months, I never thought about it again ... until I was almost thirty years old and on a retreat to prepare for ordination to the priesthood.

That childhood memory — and the attendant outrage — came back afresh. My spiritual director helped me in the process of acknowledging that I was angry because that kid owed me my lunch box. Then she helped me, through the grace of Jesus, to forgive the debt. Almost immediately I felt a new peace. I was amazed that I hadn't forgotten what I had lost, even from years before. Aren't we human beings simply amazing at remembering what people owe us?

We see this week in Jesus' parable a servant who is forgiven much but then commands another servant: “Pay back what you owe!” He can't forget or let go of how he was wronged. He remembers — and he becomes a monster because of it. If only he had remembered not only the debts owed to him, but also his greater debt owed to — and forgiven by — his master. It's natural for us to remember what others owe us. But when we contextualize those offenses in Jesus' mercy toward us and them, we're free to be merciful like the Master and less like a monster who never forgets.

NEXT GENERATION PARISH

OLA has been chosen as one of six parishes in the Archdiocese for a special project called “Next Generation Parishes”. We have been given the expertise of a national organization called Catholic Leadership Institute (CLI) designed to prepare parishes in the United States for future generations. We are all very aware of how rapidly our society values and priorities are changing to a more secular world. I am happy that we at OLA have the opportunity to anticipate and “stay ahead of the curve”. With expertise from CLI we will focus on three areas over a four year period:

- * Assess the strengths of our parish and how we will build on them for the future.
- * Develop a plan with goals and objectives that are real and measurable.
- * Cultivate an even greater awareness in the parish of how blessed we are and the call of the Church to reach out to others who are less fortunate.

Our goal is to use our talents, time and treasure to bring the message of salvation to as many people as possible. Over the next four years, we will roll out a comprehensive program with goals and objectives that, when achieved, will set us up well for the future. You too will have the opportunities to be part of this exciting adventure. More information will be available to you as the project proceeds.

“FORMED” PICK OF THE WEEK

FORMED is a popular online platform that can be likened to a Catholic Netflix. The subscription is free and provided by OLA to all parishioners. The “Pick of The Week” is Padre Pio: Miracle Man. This movie captures the Capuchin friar’s intense faith, devotion, and deep spiritual concern for others, as well as his great compassion for the sick and suffering. It reveals the amazing details and events in his life as a boy and throughout his fifty years as a friar, dramatizing the frequent attacks from the devil, as well as the persecution he suffered at the hands of people, including those in the Church. Please visit formed.org/signup to register or scan the QR Code to the left on your phone’s camera for this week’s video.

CHILDREN’S LITURGY

Weekly at the 10am Sunday Mass

Do you want to bring Jesus’ Gospel to life for your children? All Pre-K through 5th grade children are invited to come to the altar when the priest calls them up at the beginning of the 10am Sunday Mass. We are also excited to invite middle and high schoolers to be helpers. Please call the Rectory at (650) 347-7768 if your middle or high schooler is interested in being a Sunday Children’s Liturgy Aide or IT helper. The rewards are heavenly and Service Hours will be given.

PADRE PIO PRAYER GROUP MEETING

Celebrating the Feast Day of St. Padre Pio of Pietrelcina

It is a one of a kind formation and education system where you’ll learn from experts what it means to be a lay Catholic and how to successfully bring the Faith to friends, family, and coworkers.
