GOSPEL MEDITATION

Once I gave my three-year-old niece a certain toy for Christmas. When she opened it, she was happy. Shortly thereafter her five-year old sister opened another present from me: the same toy, along with some play jewelry. The three-year-old cried out: "That's not fair! Why'd she get the jewelry, too?!"

Let's face it: there's something about God's grace in our religion which bugs us. We love to look at others' blessings and cry out: "That's not fair!" Catholicism is not fair in the sense that it is a religion founded on God's grace which is unmerited favor. God pours his mercy, love, and divine life upon us not because we're good but because He is infinitely good.

If you think the "not fair" quality of grace is easy to accept, consider how typically angry we get when we hear the parable of the workers who get paid way more than they deserve. The hyper-generous landowner says to the indignant hard workers, "Are you envious because I am generous?" Well, yes, they are, and so are we! Therefore, we have to reckon with this painful truth in order to move into the divine sphere of gifts, which is the world of Christ and his Church. Then we are able to move beyond a tit-for-tat world and into one where gifts are poured forth on those who don't deserve it — namely, upon us.

NEXT GENERATION PARISH

OLA has been chosen as one of six parishes in the Archdiocese for a special project called “Next Generation Parishes”. We have been given the expertise of a national organization called Catholic Leadership Institute (CLI) designed to prepare parishes in the United States for future generations. We are all very aware of how rapidly our society values and priorities are changing to a more secular world. I am happy that we at OLA have the opportunity to anticipate and “stay ahead of the curve”. With expertise from CLI we will focus on three areas over a four year period:

- * Assess the strengths of our parish and how we will build on them for the future.
- * Develop a plan with goals and objectives that are real and measurable.
- * Cultivate an even greater awareness in the parish of how blessed we are and the call of the Church to reach out to others who are less fortunate.

Our goal is to use our talents, time and treasure to bring the message of salvation to as many people as possible. Over the next four years, we will roll out a comprehensive program with goals and objectives that, when achieved, will set us up well for the future. You too will have the opportunities to be part of this exciting adventure. More information will be available to you as the project proceeds.

LAY MISSION PROJECT

As a Catholic, we have a special mission to represent Christ and His Church to the people around us. The Lay Mission Project is devoted to igniting the Faith of lay Catholics and helping us discern and live out our unique vocations. It is a one of a kind formation and education system where you’ll learn from experts what it means to be a lay Catholic and how to successfully bring the Faith to friends, family, and coworkers. To apply, visit Laymission.net/apply-now. (See page 6 of this bulletin.)

“FORMED” PICK OF THE WEEK

FORMED is a popular online platform that can be likened to a Catholic Netflix. The subscription is free and provided by OLA to all parishioners. The “Pick of The Week” is St. Jerome of Stridon. An early Church Father from the 4th century, St. Jerome translated the Bible into Latin with the desire to make Scripture more accessible. St. Jerome is the patron of biblical scholars, translators, and archivists and famously said, “Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ.” Please visit formed.org/signup to register or scan the QR Code to the left on your phone’s camera for this week’s video.

Frequently Asked Questions:

Who is this for?

- Any baptized adult member of the Church
- Professionals in the world, parents & grandparents
- Members of parish councils & lay leaders in the parish
- Young adults discerning their careers
- Those who have recently completed RCIA

How much does it cost?

The Lay Mission Project is a solely donation-funded Ministry of the Western Dominican Province. The Project's average monthly operational cost is roughly $50/participant, but because you are responsible for sanctifying the secular world, you have the right to a formation that enables you to do so, regardless of your financial position. Although participants often give generously, financial support is NOT a requirement!

What is the time commitment?

The Lay Mission Project was developed from the ground-up with the average busy layperson in mind. The regular formation spans a three-year period and follows an academic calendar. In general, we recommend that participants allocate 3 hours per week for watching online formation videos, reading, and reflection. Participants will also meet in person with their local disciple circle about twice monthly. In addition to the small-group meetings, all those participating in the diocesan cohort come together twice per academic year: once for a two-day retreat in the late summer/early fall, and another time for a 1-day workshop in the winter.

“Because of the Lay Mission Project Formation, I changed my approach to work, and in the end, I retired having experienced the most satisfying and fulfilling last months in the workplace practicing my vocation of mercy as a nurse.”

“The Lay Mission Project has changed my life and the lives of those the Lord has placed in my spheres of influence. I realize this is a powerful statement - and it's completely true!”

What our members say:

“The depth of knowledge evident in all of the project contributors is stunning...The Lay Mission Project helped me understand how deep are the roots of the catechism in Scripture, Tradition, and natural moral law. This was extremely faith-affirming and encouraged me even more to want to share this wonderful Catholic life with others.”
