GOSPEL MEDITATION

Jesus' parables are much stranger than most people realize. This week is an attention-getting example. He tells the religious leaders a parable about a completely absurd situation. Blood-thirsty and insane tenants violently abuse and kill the servants of their landlord. Inexplicably, the owner keeps sending them more victims of increasing value — up to and including his own son. Weird.

Usually, we hear this parable and assume it's an allegory: Jesus is the murdered son, the servants the prophets, etc. Fair enough. But notice — and here is where the weirdness deepens — Jesus seems to disagree with the Pharisees' interpretation that the landowner should and will punish the inheritance-obsessed murderers. So, is Jesus praising the psychotic and greedy murderers?! You can imagine the furrowed brows and deriding laughter as the scoffing crowd shuffles away.

If we stay with this tough parable, perhaps this truth emerges: God wants us to have an over-the-top obsession with a totally undeserved inheritance. Of course, we are forbidden to use violence. But the parable's violence gets our attention because it highlights the crazy goodness of the landowner. Jesus reveals that God is not merely in the business of rewarding the good and punishing the bad. He is playing a much stranger game — one marked by a kind of over-the-top mercy, a breathtaking giving of what is not deserved. What would our week look like if we embraced this kind of desire for God's kingdom on earth, even if others think we're nuts? This week let's seek God's kingdom with a passionate confidence in God's desire to give the good things we don't deserve.

BISHOP MATT ELSHOFF

Celebrating his first Mass at OLA as Bishop on October 22 at 10am
Congratulations to Fr. Matthew Elshoff, OFM Cap who was appointed Auxiliary Bishop in the Los Angeles Archdiocese by Pope Francis. Fr. Matt, 67, is a Capuchin Franciscan friar originally from Cincinnati. He studied at the Dominican School of Philosophy and Theology in Berkeley, California, before making his perpetual profession as a Capuchin in 1979 at the age of 23. He was ordained a priest in 1982. Fr. Matt holds a master's degree in marriage and family therapy from the California Family Study Center and received his license in marriage and family therapy in 1990. He spent time as a high school campus minister, vocations director, and novice master before becoming the provincial minister at St. Francis of Assisi Friary in 2008. He most recently served as the pastor of St. Lawrence of Brindisi Church in Los Angeles. Archbishop Gómez consecrated him as a bishop on September 26 at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels in Los Angeles.

"FORMED" PICK OF THE WEEK

FORMED is a popular online platform that can be likened to a Catholic Netflix. The subscription is free and provided by OLA to all parishioners. The "Pick of The Week" is John XXIII: The Pope of Peace. This movie tells the life story of John XXIII from his youth through his young priesthood, episcopacy, life as a cardinal, and eventually his life as pope. Elected supposedly as an "interim Pope" who would just keep the status quo and listen to the advisers around him, John XXIII proved to be his own man when he surprised the Church and world by calling for the Second Vatican Council. Please visit formed.org/signup to register or scan the QR Code to the left on your phone's camera for this week's video.

WHITE MASS FOR MEDICAL PROFESSIONALS

*October 20 at 6:00pm
Mater Dolorosa Church (307 Willow Ave., SSF)*

Doctors, nurses and healthcare professionals are invited to a White Mass for Medical Professionals. A White Mass, so-named for the traditional color of physicians' coats, is a way to honor and pray with and for all those who serve in the medical professions. Let us take this chance to thank and pray with doctors, nurses, and all healthcare professionals.
