GOSPEL MEDITATION

We start telling lies around the age of three, the experts tell us. It's understandable. Lying is a god-like power. Whatever I want, I need only say it, and the world rearranges itself accordingly. It's amazing at first. But soon reality snaps back and I'm faced with a dilemma. If I remain committed to my lie I start to fracture into pieces. My words and reality drift apart, and I find myself lost in a lonely world of further falsehoods and fear of being found out.

How marvelous, then, that Jesus begins his ministry by proclaiming: "Repent!" We tend to think it means "stop doing bad things" but it doesn't. It literally means "go beyond the mind you have." Think in a new way. It's painful to admit, but some portion of my mind is addicted to lie-telling, usually to protect my ego or make life easier. To repent means to admit this tendency, to say, "I'm done lying," and to move beyond my split mind into a complete commitment to the truth. Perhaps that's why at Mass we together proclaim, "I have sinned in my thoughts, and in my words..." Repentance and truth-telling work together.

Those who know the twelve-step process of addiction recovery know this process well. The fourth step requires radical truth-telling: listing our moral defects. This isn't being scrupulous. Rather it is freedom from falsehood, and entrance into the real world. This week, I invite you to join me in this practice. Get your phone or piece of paper. Answer the question: what are your true moral defects? Write them down. Remember, the Lord knows them already and loves you. We have a sacrament where this truth-telling is celebrated: Confession. Perhaps it is finally time to go beyond our childish lies.

PRAYER

PLENARY INDULGENCE

This year, Catholics can receive a plenary indulgence through February 2, the feast of the Presentation in the Temple of Our Lord Jesus Christ, by praying before a Nativity scene in a Franciscan Church, receiving communion, and going to confession. There are three Franciscan churches in the Archdiocese: the National Shrine of St. Francis and St. Boniface Church in San Francisco, and Our Lady of Angels.

“FORMED” PICK OF THE WEEK

FORMED is a popular online platform that can be likened to a Catholic Netflix. The subscription is free and provided by OLA to all parishioners. The “Pick of The Week” is The Conversion of St. Paul. Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Dr. James Prothro, Assistant Professor of Sacred Scripture at the Augustine Institute Graduate School, to discuss the conversion of one of the largest figures in Christianity, Saint Paul. Please visit formed.org/signup to register or scan the QR Code to the left on your phone’s camera for this week’s video.

FR. GERALD AT MERCY RETIREMENT CENTER

As you are probably aware, Fr. Gerald suffers from Alzheimer's. Under the advisement of Fr. Gerald's doctors we have had to make the difficult decision, with the agreement of his family and friends, to move him to Mercy Retirement Center & Care at 3431 Foothill Blvd in Oakland, CA 94601. He is adjusting well and is happy on the fourth floor. He would greatly appreciate calls at (510) 534-8540, visits and letters from all of you who have loved him so much.
