GOSPEL MEDITATION

One of the greatest golfers of all time — if not the greatest — was Jack Nicklaus. Which is why it is baffling that at the beginning of each season he would return to his childhood coach and re-learn how to grip the golf club. It's like Shakespeare re-learning the alphabet and grammar. Why would he do that? Because Jack knew that the fundamentals are always relevant. Perfecting and obsessing over his grip allowed him to do everything else in the game well. In sports and life, the best ones love the basics.

Similarly, as we begin Lent, we re-learn the spiritual basics in the Ten Commandments. Consider the first, to "have no other gods besides me." This is our "grip." Is our connection to God one of absolute fidelity and exclusive worship? Am I willing to let go of my precious idols, the things I cling to instead of God? Once we say "yes" to this fundamental question of our spiritual "grip," then we are ready to properly engage with everything else in life.

Lenten challenge: This week, identify what you can do to better worship God alone. If you're not sure, scan the last nine commandments to identify what you are most likely to worship instead of God. Power, pleasure, control of your time, possessions, family, health, reputation, money? Commit to concrete action to help you let go of this "idol" to better hold on to God alone in faithful worship. Remember: the best love the basics.

CHURCH

The Eucharist is Jesus Christ
"The Medicine of Immortality"

Why are there 21st Century Eucharistic Miracles?
Discussion and Q&A hosted by Dr. Scott French,
ER Doctor and former Stanford professor,
from Fr. Robert Spritzer's Magis Center

PRAYER

EUCHARISTIC MIRACLES

Sunday, March 10 at 7pm in the Church

Dr. Scott French will be at OLA to present the amazing 21st century validated medical/scientific evidence that the Eucharist is the living blood, body, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ. Interestingly, the evidence of the Eucharist is tied to the evidence that the Shroud of Turin is the burial cloth of Jesus Christ. There is also science that supports the contention that the image on the Shroud is in fact evidence of the Resurrection, which is the defeat of death, and the promise of eternal life in heaven.

NEW WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY PROGRAM

"FORMED" PICK OF THE WEEK

FORMED is a popular online platform that can be likened to a Catholic Netflix. The subscription is free and provided by OLA to all parishioners. The "Pick of The Week" is Catholic All Year at Home with Kendra Tierney. Join the Tierney family as they celebrate the feast of Saint Frances of Rome, patroness of homemaking. Learn about the corporal works of mercy in the home, the very Catholic Lenten history of pretzels and beer, and watch Kendra and her 3-year-old make something they like to call "trash can soup". Find this episode's feature recipes and more about liturgical living in the home at Catholic All Year. Please visit formed.org/signup to register or scan the QR Code to the left on your phone's camera.

THE SYNOD ON SYNODALITY

Friday, March 8, from 7:00pm-9:00pm at St. Matthew Catholic Church

Pope Francis invites the whole Church to participate in the next phase of the Synod on Synodality through engagement sessions that will inform the upcoming Synod of Bishops on Synodality in October 2024. Each county will host a session where parishioners can participate in reflections and discussions designed to help shape the Church's understanding of herself and her mission of evangelization and forming disciples. Results will be summarized and shared with the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), who will use the information collected to prepare a national report for the Synod leaders at the Vatican. More details are available through the Archdiocesan website at www.sfarch.org/synod.
