GOSPEL MEDITATION

Our national pastime isn't baseball. It's what the Bible calls "condemning the world." We generally enjoy pronouncing curses upon those whom we see as trouble, wrong, or evil. Don't believe me? Listen to almost any podcast, cable news network, or social media platform to hear it. It will be some version of: "We all agree that if they are eradicated, things will be great." Condemning is almost always clothed in virtue. It basks in its good intentions. That's why it is so attractive. Condemning seems like our best path to saving what is good.

What a shock, then, to hear Jesus announce: "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him" (Jn 3:17). He comes to save the world, as we all want, but he will accomplish it without an act of condemnation. How hard it is to accept this! Condemning feels godlike. I judge who and what must be lost to protect the good. But in the light of Jesus' endless mercy and love, this is the least godlike thing we can do.

Lenten challenge: This week, I invite you to give up the delicious experience of condemning whomever in the world you most would like to see gone. Perhaps write down their names. Secondly, I invite you to consider fasting from any media that feeds the tasty but deadly tendency to condemn.

PRAYER

EUCCHARISTIC MIRACLES

Sunday, March 10 at 7pm in the Church

Dr. Scott French will be at OLA to present the amazing 21st century validated medical/scientific evidence that the Eucharist is the living blood, body, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ. Interestingly, the evidence of the Eucharist is tied to the evidence that the Shroud of Turin is the burial cloth of Jesus Christ. There is also science that supports the contention that the image on the Shroud is in fact evidence of the Resurrection, which is the defeat of death, and the promise of eternal life in heaven.

"FORMED" PICK OF THE WEEK

FORMED is a popular online platform that can be likened to a Catholic Netflix. The subscription is free and provided by OLA to all parishioners. The "Pick of The Week" is Lent with Sr. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT. Sr. Miriam reflects on almsgiving and how it heals your relationships with others. One of the most powerful ways to heal your brokenness is to give—not only money or clothing, but also your presence and love—to those whom God has placed in your life, even those who have wounded you. Please visit formed.org/signup to register or scan the QR Code to the left on your phone's camera.

OUR LADY OF ANGELS' YOUTUBE CHANNELS

Our Lady of Angels Parish now has two separate YouTube channels!

- 1) @OLofAngels (Our Lady of Angels' YouTube Channel)
This channel features LiveStreams and Friday videos
- 2) @WelcomeHomewithFr.Michael (Fr. Michael's YouTube Channel)
This channel features Fr. Michael welcoming practicing Catholics, lapsed Catholics, those considering the Catholic faith, and anyone in between in joining him in a new series called Welcome Home. In this video series, Fr. Michael draws on his pastoral experience as a Capuchin Franciscan serving the OLA parish community of Burlingame to invite viewers back into the Church by explaining the meaning and depth of the Holy Mass, Sacraments, Liturgical days of significance, and more.
