GOSPEL MEDITATION

Right now, you and I are only worried about one of only two things: wind or water. Bear with me. This week we hear the account of the terrified disciples waking Jesus in a sea-storm. He chastises them for their lack of faith, and then, “rebuking the wind, he said to the sea, ‘Quiet, be still!’” He rebukes the wind and stills the water. In the Bible wind and water represent the two most fundamental poles of our experience of creation. Wind means heaven, spirit, that which gives identity, unity, order, light. Water stands for earth, variation, potential, that which can be drawn into identity, darkness, chaos.

Too much “wind” is when things get way too rigid, abstract and ideological — when we face oppressive leaders and tyrants, when we get addicted to our own way of doing things, when our attention is too narrowly focused on one thing. Too much “water” is excessive novelty, passivity, indifference, and chaos — when our attention is too broadly diffused on many things, when things seem to be crumbling without direction into the dark abyss. We know both terrifying experiences all too well.

The point of the miracle is that God in Christ is the One who brings final cosmic harmony between these two vital but threatening forces. He ultimately does so from the wood of the cross, when he breathes forth the wind of his spirit and pours forth the water from his side to establish a new creation, filled with harmonious peace. When the wind and water are out of control, trust him.

HOLY HOUR

“FORMED” PICK OF THE WEEK

FORMED is a popular online platform that can be likened to a Catholic Netflix. The subscription is free and provided by OLA to all parishioners. The “Pick of The Week” is To Be A Pilgrim. An ancient trail of pilgrimage runs through south-east England, a pathway along which so much of English identity converges. It is the way of St. Thomas Becket, the martyr who stood up to a King and inspired Christendom. It is a route that drew countless pilgrims in ages past, captured the imagination of Chaucer, and interest in this pilgrim path is strongly reviving again today. Please visit formed.org/signup to register or scan the QR Code to the left on your phone’s camera.

ADORATION CHAPEL

Come spend some quiet time with Jesus in the beautiful Adoration Chapel which is located at the end of the Hall of Saints.

The chapel is open from 8:30 am-5:30 pm (Monday through Friday) and 8:30 am-Noon (Saturdays). If you would like to devote some time to this ministry, please contact Linda Kosta at (650) 359-0945.

EUCCHARIST MINISTERS

You will receive the July-September Eucharistic Minister schedule soon. Please contact Carole Nickolai with any dates you are not available to serve at (415) 640-1593 or carolenickolai@gmail.com. Thank you.
