GOSPEL MEDITATION

“I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.” John 10:11 My most boring job was working at an insurance company as a college student. My main task? Filing. Now imagine if I had told my supervisor, “I just want you to know, I’m willing to die for these files.” She would have called a psychiatrist — or at least security.

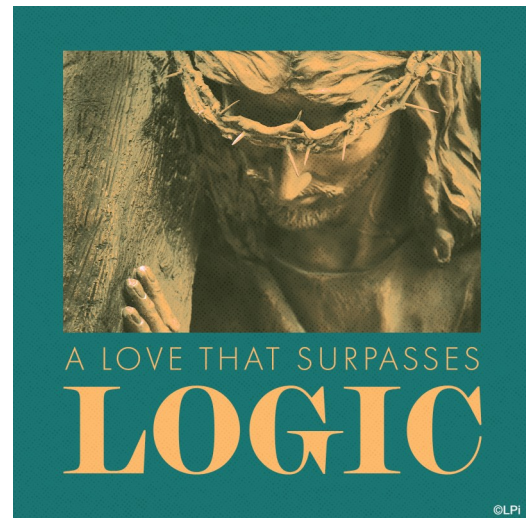

There is something absurd in Jesus’ words in today’s Gospel: “I am the good shepherd... I lay down my life for the sheep.” (John 10:11) It sounds noble, until you think about it. No one dies for sheep. Not a hired hand. Not even a good shepherd. Sheep are important but not worth a human life.

C.S. Lewis once said that Jesus does not leave us the option of calling him merely a good teacher. If someone speaks like him, he is either lying, crazy, or telling the truth. John’s Gospel won’t let us stay sentimental. Jesus means it. He reveals a love that surpasses logic — a love that measures worth not by strength or success, but by the willingness to suffer unto death.

The Good Shepherd’s madness is mercy. His cross makes no earthly sense and yet it makes divine sense. He lays down his life not for kings or saints but for sheep, for the ordinary, the unworthy, for you and me.

Think of someone who may feel unworthy of love. Do something simple and generous for them, not because they deserve it, but because Jesus did the same for you.

OLA WILL SOON CELEBRATE 100 YEARS!

Our Lady of Angels will soon celebrate the 100 year anniversary of both our church and our school! Our parish was founded in 1926 and our school opened in 1927. Beginning this summer and continuing through 2027, we will mark this extraordinary milestone with a year of celebration, gratitude, and community. If you would like to join the Planning Committee, volunteer to help, or donate to help defray the costs of the Centennial activities, please email parishoffice@olaparish.org. Donations can also be made via the QR Code on the left! Also, please save the date for the first event, a Summer BBQ for the parish and school, on August 22, 2026!
