GOSPEL MEDITATION

When I was a young altar server, I once overheard two very different comments about the Eucharist. One person asked, “Is Father distributing the bread or the wine?” Later, another asked, “Can you go get Jesus from the tabernacle?” Same parish, same Mass, but two very different ways of speaking. I pondered: So, is it bread that we pretend is Jesus? Or is Jesus a tiny white thing in a box? I was utterly confused.

This Feast of Corpus Christi is an excellent time to think about how we should speak about the Eucharist. In today’s Gospel, Jesus declares: “My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.” (John 6:55) His words scandalized his listeners, who feared cannibalism, and even today puzzle many, who reduce them to metaphor. Both miss the truth.

The Church gives us better words that honor Jesus’ words in the Gospel. After the consecration, we do not call it “bread” or “wine.” Nor do we say, “a piece of Jesus” or even “Jesus.” We say: the Eucharist. We say: the Body and Blood of Christ. We say: the Real Presence. We say: the Most Blessed Sacrament. These words safeguard the astonishing reality that Christ himself is truly present, whole and entire, under the appearances of bread and wine.

If we speak well about the Eucharist, we will think more clearly and believe more deeply. And if we believe more deeply, we will adore more truly the One who gives himself to us — not bread, not wine, but Jesus Christ himself, whole and entire. — Fr. John Muir

COMPLETE GUIDE TO MAGNIFICA HUMANITAS

Last week, Pope Leo XIV shared his first Papal encyclical, Magnifica Humanitas ("Magnificent Humanity"), with the world. In it, he addresses one of the defining questions of our age: How to safeguard human dignity in the era of artificial intelligence. Signed on May 15, 2026, and released on May 25, 2026, the document explores technology, human identity, work, truth, and the Christian vision of authentic humanity. Learn more about this pivotal moral teaching on technology and human dignity at ascensionpress.com/blogs/articles/a-complete-guide-to-pope-leo-s-encyclical-magnificent-humanitas.

Are you interested in becoming Catholic or learning more about the Catholic faith?
Are you a visitor to Our Lady of Angels Church who is not Catholic, but feels drawn to the Catholic faith? Do you desire to be baptized?

Were you baptized in another faith, and now are considering joining the Catholic Church?
Were you baptized a Catholic, but not raised in the faith or never received the sacraments of Eucharist and/or Confirmation?

Are you married to a Catholic and want to worship fully as a family?

If you answered “yes” to any of these questions, the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) is for you. OCIA is a discernment process with absolutely no pressure. Catholics who are already in full communion with the church are encouraged and welcomed to journey with and to act as sponsors to our catechumens.

Our weekly sessions focus on the teachings of Jesus and the doctrine of the Church. We help you prepare to receive the Sacraments of Initiation – Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist – during the Easter season.

OCIA meetings are held Monday evenings from 7pm to 8:45pm. You may begin in June of this year and continue through Pentecost (June) of the following year. You may join at any time throughout the year, but that may delay the reception of the sacraments until the following Easter.

If you are interested in participating in this year’s OCIA group, please contact Deacon Chris or Johna, Co-director of Religious Education, using the information below.
